Snow Update 2/2/2012 14:00

It's no secret that a big upslope storm is on its way. Predictions have been steadily increasing over the last three days. I have heard of amounts of up to 2 feet by Saturday afternoon.

The long duration, heavy accumulations, and wind expected with this storm will likely push us into blizzard conditions.

We are prepared and know it will be difficult. We will be sending updates regularly.

Thanks,
